Market Technical Outlook

The Nifty opened higher, and momentum on the upside intensified as the day progressed which led nifty to close near days high. On the daily chart, we are observing that prices have started trading above 10-day SMA (23152) & 20-days SMA (23274). This suggests that a pullback rally is likely to get extended. In coming trading session if nifty trades above 23550 the it may test 23610 - 23720 levels. On the downside, 23400 - 23300 levels may act as support for the day.

Since, the finance Minister is going to announce the Union Budget we are like to witness volatile session. We maintain our stance that looking at the current price action it is evident that a pullback rally may be extended. Hence, one needs to adopt cautiously positive approach at current level.
