Market Technical Outlook

The Nifty opened down, but as the day progress we witnessed positive momentum in the market. On the daily chart, we are observing prices tested 100-day SMA and “Hammer” candlestick formation, which indicate we can see positive momentum with stocks specific action. In the coming trading session if nifty trades above 24290 level, then it may test 24360 – 24450 levels. On the downside 24210 – 24100 levels may act as support for the day.

Since prices are trading above the rising 200-days SMA, one needs to adopt a cautiously positive approach at current level.
