Market Technical Outlook

The Nifty opened higher traded in a narrow range throughout the day with positive bias to close in green. On the daily chart, after an inside day formation we are observing a narrow range body formation which suggests indecisiveness prevailing at current level. In coming trading session if nifty trades above 23250 level then it may test 23310 – 23420 levels. On the downside, 23100 – 22900 levels may act support for the day.

Since prices are still trading below the 200-days SMA (23985), one needs to adopt cautious approach at current level.
