Market Technical Outlook

The Nifty opened on a positive note and maintained a bullish bias throughout the session, ultimately closing in the green. On the daily chart, the index has successfully reclaimed the 10-day Simple Moving Average (SMA) at 24,815 and continues to trade well above the 20-day SMA at 24,539, indicating sustained upward momentum. Looking ahead, if the index manages to trade above 24,905, it may potentially test the next resistance levels at 24,965 and 25,045. On the downside, the zones around 24,750 and 24,640 are expected to act as immediate support for the day.

In a broader context, prices remain firmly above key moving averages the 10-day, 20-day, and also the 200-day SMA at 24,050, reinforcing the underlying bullish trend. However, it is worth noting the presence of a negative divergence in the Relative Strength Index (RSI), which calls for a cautious approach in the near term, as it may signal slowing momentum despite the overall positive structure.
