Market Technical Outlook

The Nifty opened higher traded in a narrow range with positive bias, eventually closing in green. On the daily chart, we are observing a narrow range body formation which indicates indecisiveness prevailing at current level. In coming trading session if nifty trades above 24900 then it may test 24975 – 25080 levels. On the downside, 24745 – 24630 levels may act as support for the day.

Broadly, the market is experiencing a pullback rally within a lower top-lower bottom formation, and the index needs to reclaim the 50-day SMA (25,053) to sustain upward momentum. Hence, traders are advised to maintain a cautiously positive approach at current levels, while stock-specific activity is likely to persist.
